

The Correct View of the Case.
(By Cable to the Plain Dealer.)

LONDON, June 21.—The Pall Mall Gazette says: "We wish the government had followed the sound principle of letting O'Donovan alone. It is very fine for the Telegraph to talk about requiring America to treat the planners of insurrection as the English government has treated Herr Moss, the proprietor of the Freiheit. We may require as much as we please, but unless we are much mistaken, America will give a short answer to such requisitions. It seems extremely improbable that the American government will be allowed, either by tradition or policy, to meddle with the Irish American press. Any overt preparations for the expedition it will doubtless put down as it has before."

The Daily News has an article almost exactly similar on the subject. It says: "Although it is not likely that America will interfere with the press, her government has usually acted loyally and firmly when any real danger for friendly power was planned with the American frontier."

How to Tell.

Just stroll around to back kitchen doors on Monday, if you want to see how pretty she is. There she stands, queen of the wash-tub, princess of the clothes wringer. Watch her as she plays a light pianissimo solo on the wash-board, ever and anon increasing to crescendo, and occasionally bursting out into a staccato movement that rips the buttons off the waistbands. Her hands are parboiled, her elbows dimpled, her face redolent with sudsy steam. If she hastily wipes her hands on her apron and scoots out of sight, bid her a lasting good-by. But if she rests with her hands on her hips and bids you 'good morning' in a cheery tone—don't linger a great while. She means to give you a dose of warm water just as soon as you get near enough. Call on her in the evening, and if she can't play the piano as well as she does the wash-board never mind. Go ahead, say your little say.—Tom Weaver.

An old man who had for half a century been known throughout New England as the 'Wandering Jew' recently died at Middlebury, Vt. His real name was Francis William Alexander, and he was not a Jew, but a Scotchman of excellent education, and possessed of money enough to supply all his wants. He wandered constantly about, had a weird aspect, and was the terror of children far and wide. Popular superstition ascribed to him great age, and it was whispered that having committed some awful crime, he was doomed never to die, but always to tramp. Ignorant housewives closed their doors against him in terror. He seemed to enjoy the aversion which he excited, and sometimes increased it by solemnly pronouncing the most dreadful maledictions.

A Cough, Cold or Sore Throat should be stopped. Neglect frequently results in an incurable Lung Disease or Consumption. BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES are certain to give relief in Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, catarrh, Consumptive and Throat Diseases. For thirty years the Troches have been recommended by physicians, and always give perfect satisfaction. They are not new or untried but having been tested by wide and constant use for nearly an entire generation, they have attained well-merited rank among the few staple remedies of the age. Public speakers and Singers use them to clear and strengthen the Voice. Sold at twenty-five cents a box everywhere. oct-1-yr

MSHLER'S HERB BITTERS

A Compound Tincture of the most valuable remedies known to the medical profession, prepared upon strictly pharmaceutical principles.

An experience of twenty-five years proves it to be the greatest Remedy to Malaria and all other Agues known to the world.

The only absolute cure for all Affections of the Kidneys, in Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, all Disorders of the Bowels, and all Affections of the Throat and Lungs, it is equally effective, while it is a remedy for complaints peculiar to the female sex it has no equal.

NOT A BEVERAGE

But an old reliable Household Remedy, thoroughly adapted to human nature.

It applies to the stomach, invigorates the digestive organs, stimulates the secretory action of the bowels, enables every organ of the body to perform its allotted work regularly and without interruption.

Its highest commendations come from those who have used it longest and know it best.

Nowhere so popular as in Lancaster, Pa., where it has been in use for more than a quarter of a century.

Highly commended as a General Tonic and Appetizer. Sold by Druggists everywhere.

Notice to Contractors.

SEAL proposals will be received at the office of the Clerk of the Board of Education, Flaxmead, Henry County, Ohio, until twelve o'clock at noon on the 4th day of July, A. D. 1881, for building a high school house on the lot situated in the village of Florida, Henry County, Ohio, in Sub. District No. one (1), according to the plans, which there will be on file, and applications which will be on file on and after the 1st day of June, 1881, in said office.

Each bid must contain the name of every person interested in the same and be accompanied by a sufficient quantity of some disinterested person, that if the bid is accepted a contract will be entered into and the performance of it properly secured; the bid for each kind of material called for by the specification must be stated separately, and the price of each given, and the price of labor must also be separately stated. None but the lowest responsible bid will be accepted, and the board may reject all bids.

By order of the Board of Education.
